1 - INTRODUCTION (one or two readers)

(A)

Welcome students, families, and community members from

_____ e.g.the great state of Utah. I am _____ representing _____ and I am joined by _____ one of the founders of the Constitution Live Youth Council.

Thank you for joining us to celebrate Utah's First Constitution and Founders Recognition month! As we read our founding documents, remember the United States Constitution is the longest surviving Constitution in existence.

(B)

In the summer of 1787, at the Constitutional Convention, held at Independence Hall in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Thirty-nine members attending the Convention signed the Constitution before returning to their home states to present it to their constituents for ratification.

(A)

Since the Constitution's ratification, 27 amendments have been added. Plans for changes to the Constitution were rooted in the design from the start. Today's readers will acknowledge where the language has been changed. Notice how many times "we the people" have come together as a nation and made improvements to the Supreme law of our land.

(B)

Our Constitution is over 230 years old. Creating it required great debate, heated disagreements, and difficult compromise. It continues today to stand as a beacon to us and all nations that even through our challenges, liberty is possible with civil debate and thoughtful compromise.

Join us for the next 45 minutes as we accept our individual responsibility to be educated on the rules by which we are governed. Please open your pocket Constitution books to the first page where the Preamble begins.

After spending the last 45 minutes together reading the Constitution, we are all more familiar with the supreme law of our land and are better able to have a meaningful conversation about the ideals of our country. Reading the Constitution will help us to protect and preserve our liberty! George Washington said, "The power under the Constitution will always be in the People." We are those people! Thank you for joining _____ for our reading of the United States Constitution and Bill of Rights.

PRAYER - (A)

Thank you for joining us today. We will begin with a prayer, by _____.*

*ex. prayer by Thomas Jefferson:

Prayer, said by Thomas Jefferson, written March 4, 1801, in WA DC:

"Almighty God, who has given us this good land for our heritage, we humbly beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honorable ministry, sound learning, and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord, and confusion, from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitude brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endow with Thy spirit of wisdom those whom in Thy name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to Thy law, we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the earth. In time of prosperity fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in Thee to fail; all of which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
